DECISION

No. 334-N of 4 April 2013

ON EXCHANGE OF THE DRIVING LICENCES OF CITIZENS OF ARMENIAN ORIGIN OF THE SYRIAN ARAB REPUBLIC

In accordance with Article 9 (e) of the Law of the Republic of Armenia "On Ensuring Road Traffic Safety", the Government of the Republic of Armenia hereby decides:

1. To make an exception in the procedure established by subpoint 1 of point 1 of Decision No. 1158-N of the Government of the Republic of Armenia of 18 September 2008 "On establishing the procedure for holding examinations on receiving a driving licence and issuing a driving licence, the list of documents subject to mandatory submission for receiving a driving licence, as well as the forms and descriptions of national and international driving licences" and to exchange national driving licences not fulfilling the requirements for driving licences defined by the Convention "On Road Traffic" of 8 November 1968 for citizens of Armenian origin of the Syrian Arab Republic and by the subsequent amendments and supplements thereto, without having them taken qualification examinations, and to allocate national driving licences of the Republic of Armenia for a period of one year, under condition that those persons take the qualification examinations within that period.

2. To define that:

(1) to exchange a driving licence, persons referred to in point 1 of this Decision shall submit the following to the examination body:

(a) a passport or another identification document, and where information is missing about the place of registration (actual residence) of the person in the Republic of Armenia, a statement on the place of registration (actual residence) as well;

(b) a receipt of payment of state fee prescribed by the law for the issuing a driving licence;

(c) the driving licence to be exchanged, as well as the translation thereof, certified by the notary;

(2) in case of expiration of the period prescribed by point 1 of this Decision, as well as in case of not having taken or having failed the qualification examinations within that period, the national driving licences of the Republic of Armenia received without having taken the qualification exams shall be deemed repealed.

3. This Decision shall enter into force on the day following the official promulgation, and its operation shall extend to relations having arisen before 31 December 2015.
